CLASS HISTORY

THERE are so many things to remember about our four years . . . some good . . . some bad . . . some humorous . . . Remember the annex? We were freshmen, green as they come, with big brief cases and no makeup. We got our first taste of homework . . . and those foreign languages! . . . Remember those big blue notebooks . . . Barringer seemed so big after the annex of only one floor . . . Here we really got into the swing of things, buying bonds and stamps and writing out ration books so we could get out of our classes . . . We caught on quickly that there were other means of getting to the Adams for the morning show. The nurse's office was filled with us choking down our bicarbonate of soda . . . The cowards cut the whole day while the brave ones boldly cut a period . . . We were exploited by the seniors, sold pink elevator tickets, football pins, and for a dime we could be a well-wisher.

We identified the teachers . . . Miss Wiess's familiar tapping of a pencil . . . Mr. Snavely's "That's a zero for today", Miss Coburn's "C", Miss Beebe's "bosh", and her "Room 60", Mr. Dumm's jokes . . . all these things . . . We changed with the styles . . . from high pompadors to flat tops, from saddles to loafers and sling-backs . . . Remember the trying times when the girls had to wait in line for their first nylons . . . And those butch haircuts! Straight from Sing Sing. . . .

BARRINGER

Along with these lesser things, important events were taking place. We became more conscious of the war. Collections for all kinds of good causes were taken . . . The war claimed many of our students for after school work . . . We still don't know how they did it . . . And then it was over at last. V-E Day found our happiness clouded only by the fact that the Board of Education failed to let us out for the big celebration . . . V-J Day arrived during the summer vacation and we were on the way to welcoming back friends and relations . . . We came back to school with summer tans, and tried to keep our brown luster by eating in the park . . . Some kids missed swimming so much they tried out the lake. The park became our campus. It was a pleasure to leave the crowded lunchroom behind . . . Besides the seniors had all the best tables . . . We attacked our work with fresh enthusiasm. But we soon lapsed back into the old familiar habits of copying homework and making out gyp-slips . . . Blue Monday was even bluer when the report cards came out . . .

CLASS HISTORY

But nowhere in the pages of Barringer history could be found more enthusiastic rooters than we. We cheered the loudest at all the football, baseball and basketball games. Gullible as we were we even cheered "Kilroy" (Bless his invisible rambling soul) . . . This was the age when "Hubba Hubba" was a sign of appreciation and "Lena the Hyena" was definitely the last to receive it. Even Richard wouldn't open the door for her . . . We never did find out who won the Battle of the Baritones, Bing Crosby or Frankie Sinatra . . . Can we ever forget the great day of the East Side upset. We were city champs for one exalted year, but we lost our crown to Central the following one. The bus-ride to Phillipsburg is something to remember . . . And then the big East Orange traditional Thanksgiving game. We were lucky enough to be here for the fiftieth game. What a celebration. A big rally in the assembly of both schools, a parade at the stadium. We went to the big game flashing our new class rings, a little sleepy after getting up so early and waiting in line at the Blue and White for them. And then we had to go and lose the game. Oh well . . . There were other little disappointments, too. Remember the Junior Prom we didn't have? We got the bids but they just didn't sell. But we weren't disappointed to find out that we didn't have to take two years of U. S. History (Phew!) . . . Wasn't it a joke on some of us mighty seniors getting the luxurious room No. 3 suite? . . .

EALTH

OFFICE

Can we ever forget dissecting those frogs in Biology (Oh gruesome!) . . . And those irregular verbs (Oh Gruelsome!) . . . Remember Shakespeare and those Greek gods? Who's holding up the world anyhow, Mercury? . . . Remember the talk about the new school? Of course we all wanted a swimming pool and an elevator. But our presence left a mark on Barringer. It was during our four years that something really momentous occurred: the auditorium was painted and the lockers fixed. Typing was offered for the first time and we were happy to see the return of baseball after a lapse of 25 years . . . It was our class that welcomed back the veterans . . . We were honored to have two principals, Mr. McGreal and Mr. Saylor . . . What a relief to get rid of the night school and have the building to ourselves. That was one thing we were glad to give Central . . . Our class was very versatile . . . We took part in many activities and helped the formation of the psychology Club . . . We looked forward to our Spring Concerts which gave our musically inclined classmates a chance to show their stuff . . . Barringer led the community chest parade, literally and figuratively, with the students dressed in uniform blue and white . . . Our social life came to a climax in our senior year. The "Hallowe'en Hangover", our 4B Dance, was a huge success. Of course the Blue Jackets supplied the music but the spotlight was really on us up and coming seniors . . . We feel we were pretty original (and others thought so, too) with our "Cat in the Caldron" wishing well. Our 4A dance was really wonderful. It softened the blow of coming back after the Easter vacation. . . .

CLASS HISTORY

We all turned salesmen, selling football pins and kerchiefs. We had a hard time with those kerchiefs, they just didn't seem to get "ahead". (That's a joke, son) . . . And those class dues—paid on the installment plan . . . But we had our serious moments too. We were a hard working class in studies as well as in activities. We led the super-honor roll all during our four years . . . The culmination of our hard work was the College Board Exams. They were something! . . . We were helped to plan our future on Career Day. Some day that was! We know one boy who signed up to be an undertaker and was sent to interior decorating. . .

Signs of the times were those reindeer sweaters and father's baggy plaid shirts . . . Any girl that knew anything made a sack dress and wore bangle bracelets . . . All the B. T. O.'s wore horn rimmed glasses . . . Van Johnson was all the girls' dream boy and Esther Williams was the boys' dream girl. . . .

And then the Senior Prom . . . Low music and soft lights. The lighting must have been flattering for never had the boys looked so handsome nor the girls so lovely. We felt a wistful sadness knowing this was our last big social event together . . . And then graduation . . . The climax of four wonderful years. We enjoyed them all . . . We were stepping out into the world at last!

ATHLETICS

Cheerleaders

Marie Garruto Lydia Cocchiarella Julia Rosania Lena Frascella

Bill Adam

Bill earned his major "B" for his fine work as manager during the "46" season. He also threw the shot on the track squad. Bill's hard work was appreciated by all.

Hilbert Carson

Hilbert's fine work as football manager has been outstanding. His efforts were well rewarded as he received both a major letter and a gold football as manager of our City Championship Team of 1945.

Ralph Figliuzzi

Ralph became a member of the track and fencing teams in his latter years at Barringer. He received a major "B" as manager of our championship fencing team.

Vinnie's great fighting spirit made up for his lack of weight in football. He captured his major letter for the "46" season. Vinnie's aggressiveness at guard stamped him a fine player.

Lou was off to a fast start on his athletic career as he won his major letter on the track team. As a mere freshman he received a gold track shoe, when the cross country team triumphed in the city meet. He was elected captain of the squad in his junior year and has also eclipsed his early track victories.

Larry Caprio

Larry has received much recognition for his work on the baseball and football squads. His fine fielding and hitting earned him his place on the All-City Baseball Team. Larry also did a fine job in handling the kicking chores in football season.

Joe Casale

Joe shouldered the burdens of the "46" season as a reserve quarterback. He came through admirably and was awarded a major letter for his fine ball handling. Joe played many full games for the Big Blue.

Rico Conforti

Rico is one of the few fellows to have defended his crown successfully in the city track meet. This classy feat earned him a pair of major letters. Rico is a real inspiration to his fellow team mates.

Bob Nielsen

Bob has earned major letters in both track and fencing. He has developed into a fine discus thrower on our track team. Bob has also received a state letter in fencing. He has been a consistent winner in both these sports, especially as Co-Captain of our championship fencing team.

Bill Quinn

Bill has been a varsity member of the football squad for several seasons. Switched to a reserve guard, he played a fast, hard game. Bill received his major letter in football for the "46" season.

Joe Santosuosso

In the past two years, Joe has developed into an important cog in our baseball team. He finished last season hitting at a 400 clip. Joe's all around fine play won him a major letter and a place on the All City Team.

Ernie's talents in fencing were first revealed in his sophomore year. His dependable performance as a reserve soon earned him a major letter. Ernie proved himself a valuable asset to the team.

Bob proved himself a great scoring threat in both football and basketball. He received major letters in both these sports for two consecutive seasons. In recognition of his abilities Bob was nominated to the All City and All-County football teams.

FINALI

You'll always remember the day—the day you shed the designation "Student" for the more impressive sounding "Alumnus" or "Alumna".

There are other things to remember, too—things like this quote of Benjamin Franklin's—

"If a man empties his purse into his head no man can take it away from him; an investment in knowledge always pays the best interest."

You have made that investment. Continue to make it.

REMEMBER-

The Future Belongs to Those Who Prepare For It.

The most interesting fact about the above statement is that people from all walks of life make these deposits—from the ranks of labor, professional people, housewives, school children.

The most important significance to be drawn from the frequency of the deposits, however, is that, whether large or small, they are made regularly.

We invite you to join your neighbors who through generations have come to find that "The Howard" is a friendly, human savings bank.

Start NOW to save regularly at New Jersey's largest MUTUAL savings bank.

Who is the

"Voice with a Smile?"

A GIRL very much like you—perhaps she lives on your block or went to your school. She's friendly, wants to get ahead, and takes pride in a job that counts in her community.

She dresses well, too, on a salary that is the highest in telephone history. Yes, she likes it here—the interesting work, the pleasant surroundings, the feeling of working with young people like herself.

You will like it here, too. And your Vocational Guidance Director can tell you how easy it is to become a "Voice with a Smile" after you graduate. Ask her today.
